LIFE AFTER EASTER . . .

We’re all looking forward to Easter. We do every year. It is the high-water mark in the life of the church in more ways than one—attendance swells, family and friends make a point of worshipping together, and the news “Christ is Risen” is quickly met with “He is Risen Indeed!” I look forward to celebrating the Resurrection with you at the 6:30 a.m. Sunrise Service at Hilltop United Methodist Church and again at 10:00 a.m. at TPC.

Those of us who meet Christ on Easter morning are invited to start a new tradition. We have a chance to prove that Easter makes a difference. We are called upon to demonstrate that because Jesus is risen, we, like those who first heard and believed, are new persons in Christ.

The Sunday after Easter has long been called “low Sunday.” I believe we can set a new pattern for the church, beginning at TPC. I want to challenge you to make the Sunday after Easter “high Sunday” by demonstrating through your presence that there is new life after Easter.

You are invited to join God’s Easter People for worship on April 18, the Sunday after Easter, when life begins again.

Grace and Peace,
Dick Wiggers, Interim Pastor

Continuing Education

LET'S HEAR IT FOR OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS!

Thank you to all who have helped in our Christian Education Program! It takes a Christian Education Committee, Shepherds (coordinators), teachers every Sunday and, of course, children to make a program successful. We work closely with Rev. Wiggers, the Worship Committee, the Fellowship Committee, Crystal and many others to enrich our children's learning and worship experience. We can always use more assistance in our many activities. Do you have a craft you could share with a class or a story to read or tell to our young ones? Could you play the piano for a sing-a-long or supply snack for the classes one Sunday? We could use your talents and creativity to supplement our existing programs. We would like the kids to experience many different people helping with their events and classes. They need to know that we are all in this together! Please contact Pam Bowen or any of our Shepherds if you can offer a little time to help. Thank You!

Library Update:

The library has just acquired 3 new additions:

1. The Oxford Bible Atlas -- 2001 -- For those of you doing Bible study this is an excellent reference. It contains archeological pictures and text as well as many maps of the biblical areas through the ages. Many fascinating pictures!
2. The Young Readers Bible Dictionary -- a great help for Sunday school teachers with definitions and pictures that children can understand. Do you know the definition of sackcloth and where you can find references to it in the bible? This book will tell you. How about "mercy seat"? Just look under "M" and you'll find out as well as have biblical references as to where to find it used in the Bible. It also includes many names of people and places and the pronunciation of them. Wouldn't that be helpful! Maybe even our scripture readers could benefit from that!!!!
3. Harper Collins Bible Dictionary -- This is a much bigger book with many more words, maps, pictures and longer definitions. So often there come up words that you may not be quite sure of, and now you have a source available to find out the meaning.

"These new books can be found in the library under the Dewey number 220.3"

Happy Reading!
Diane Barry, Librarian

New Church Office Hours Beginning April 1st (no fooling)

Rhoda's hours in the church office will be as follows:

Tues – Thurs 9:00am – 3:00pm (office will be closed 12:30-1:00 pm for lunch)

Friday 9:00am – 12:00pm

A Note from Heather Chase

Travel, travel and more travel...

I wrote in my Christmas letter how I couldn't believe that I had applied to be in South Africa last year and instead I was in Louisville, KY. Now I can't believe that I am going to Ghana. I also got a scholarship to attend a national multicultural conference in Irving, TX this month. As you can probably guess, I love to travel. In May I will be traveling to California for graduation from San Francisco Theological Seminary with my Masters of Divinity degree.

Time flies and that's why Lent is such a great time of year for me. It is a time to slow down. It is a season of reflection. This Lent I am reflecting on my finances. It is a challenge and it has caused me to be creative. You have probably heard the phrase "poor student" and yet we are called to give of our time, talents and finances. There are several ways that I have found to give being a student. One is clicking on the hunger website, www.thehungersite.com each week. Each time a person clicks on this site, food is donated. I also buy breast cancer or family violence awareness stamps that donate money to these causes. One of my favorite ideas has been to go to Yoga and the fee for the class is a donation to the local Fairness Alliance group. What a great way to help the community and myself!

One of my life verses is Psalm 46:10 "Be still and know that I am God." One of my favorite things about stopping to reflect is seeing how God is working in my life. It is pretty amazing. I am looking forward to how God will use me in the future.

Enjoy Easter!

New Church Officers Elected March 14

At the congregational meeting on Sunday, March 14, Art Barry, Deborah Lewis and Greg Owen were elected to serve as elders, and Greg Imus, Karen Jones, Toni MacHaffie, Paula Miller, Rachel Norse, and Jay Wilcox were elected to serve as deacons. Please keep these new officers in prayer as they prepare for their ordination and installation on Sunday, May 23. Watch for more information on Paula and her family next month!

Newly Elected Elders

Art Barry and his wife Diane moved to Tualatin in 1983 when Art started an antibiotic research institute. Before that, he was the Professor of Microbiology and Infectious Disease at the U. C. Davis School of Medicine. They raised their 4 children while in Davis and now have two grandsons in Sacramento and one granddaughter in Los Angeles. Shortly after moving to Tualatin, Diane saw a sign on a vacant lot on Boones Ferry Road announcing that this would be the future home of a Presbyterian Church. There was a phone number that told them to go to the VFW Hall for Sunday services. They did and fell in love with the people that they met there and have been involved with TPC ever since. They are charter members. Art was a member of the first building committee and was responsible for decorative aspects of the first building. He also chaired the first Personnel committee, served on the Worship committee for several years, and is currently on the Outreach committee. Art is now retired but continues to consult with pharmaceutical companies throughout the world. This enables them to travel extensively. He continues to develop his interest in woodworking and has made a number of furnishings for TPC. He continues to pursue his life long love of painting seascapes, landscapes and whatever else strikes his fancy.

Deborah Lewis joined the church approximately 13 years ago, along with her husband, John, and her children, Greg and Alex. Deborah has participated on the Worship, Youth Group, Fellowship and Adult Ed Committees and for many years has provided homemade bread for communion. She has chaired the Seder committee for the past 6 years and has enjoyed providing tea parties for the senior women of TPC. In addition to working part-time as a paralegal, she enjoys quilting, traveling and skiing in her spare time. She has also participated in the Boy Scouts for many years on behalf of her sons, in particular, chairing the Boy Scout Pancake Breakfast, which is held annually on the first Sunday of June--it's almost time to buy tickets!

Greg Owen, originally from New Albany, Indiana, moved to Tualatin from Reading, Pennsylvania in February 1994 when he began a new job with a local engineering company. His wife, Debby, and their two sons, Todd and Kevin, joined him in July 1994. The family joined TPC in November 1994. Greg has served on the Stewardship Committee, the Building Committee and helped put in the new sprinkler system for the Church. He also helps to count the offering and plays percussion with the TPC Choir. Greg is a Project Manager with Jacobs Engineering in Lake Oswego. Hobbies include playing drums with the Tualatin Valley Community Band, playing darts and woodworking. He and his wife, Debby, have two sons, Todd (27) of Tualatin, and Kevin (25) living in Washington D.C. with his wife, Pat.

Newly Elected Deacons

Greg Imus

Greg & Debbie have been married for 28 years and have two kids: Karly (23) and Brian (21). They have lived in Tualatin since 1987 and started attending Tualatin Presbyterian Church in 1988. Presently, Greg is serving on the Pastor Nominating Committee and occasionally serves as liturgist for worship service. Greg works at Blount Inc./Oregon Saw Chain as North American Advertising & Promotions Manager. Hobbies include lap swimming, canoeing, (swimming again if the canoe tips), and camping.

Jay Wilcox

Nancy and I have been married 34+ years. We had two children, Jocelyn who passed away in 2002 at age 24 and Jenny who is 23 and living in Missoula, Mt. I retired in June from the Postal Service after 34 years of service. We started attending TPC in the fall of 2001. I had been friends with Thom Nelson for many years and also was close friends with several families in the church. It seemed a logical choice. Thom and the community as a whole really appealed to us. The feeling of community is very important to us and we both felt it was very strong at TPC. Up until now we have participated in the worship services, some of the beautification projects and the auction. I am looking forward in getting more involved in the group.

Toni MacHaffie

I've enjoyed being a part of TPC for more than 15 years and have participated in a number of activities over the years, including Fellowship and Mission Committees; the Christmas basket; Food Bank Programs, and TPC Quilters. I am an ordained Elder and Deacon and had an opportunity to serve a partial term as Deacon here at TPC a few years ago. I'm looking forward to serving as a Deacon as our church continues to grow.

Rachel Norse

Rachel Norse has been attending TPC for ten years and has been active with the worship committee and youth group. She has been married to her husband Rick for twenty-two years. Her son David is a senior at Sherwood High School and will be attending Lewis & Clark College in the fall. Rachel works in Medical Records at Good Samaritan Hospital, in Portland. Pictured are Rachel, son David, and husband Rick. David received his Eagle Scout Award on March 6, 2004.

Karen Jones

I grew up in Colorado, and moved to Oregon in 1977. The first time I visited TPC, it met at the VFW hall, then again when it met at the old church. I visited again after they moved to the present location and joined soon after. Although I wasn't a member from the beginning, I have seen the growth through the years. I work as an RN in the Short Stay unit at Meridian Park Hospital. My son, Brian, is a senior at Tualatin HS. He is planning to study Computer Engineering at OSU. We have a dog named Dallas. One of my favorite trips was a bicycle trip that Brian and I took around the Canadian Gulf Islands. We left our car in Anacortes, and took our bikes by ferry to Vancouver Island. Each day, we took a ferry to a different island and rode our bikes around that island. I enjoy walking. My team walked the Portland to Coast Relay for 5 years. I also walked the Portland Marathon.

Easter Story Cookie Recipe

To be made the night before Easter

You will need:

1 cup whole pecan or walnuts	1 tsp vinegar	3 egg whites	pinch of salt
Bible
1-cup sugar	zip lock bag (3)	wooden spoon	tape

Preheat oven to 300° F

Place nuts in the baggie and let the children beat them with a wooden spoon to break them into small pieces. Explain that after Jesus was arrested, He was beaten by the Roman soldiers. John 19:1-3

Let each child smell the vinegar. Put 1 tsp vinegar into the mixing bowl. Explain that when Jesus was thirsty on the cross He was given vinegar to drink. John 19: 28-30

Add egg whites to the vinegar. Eggs represent life. Explain that Jesus gave His life to give us life. John 10: 10-11

Sprinkle a little salt into each child's hand. Let them taste it and then brush the rest into the bowl. Explain that this represents the salty tears shed by Jesus' followers, and the bitterness of our own sin. Luke 23:27

So far the ingredients are not very appetizing. Add 1 cup sugar. Explain that the sweetest part of the story is that Jesus died because He loves us. He wants us to know and belong to Him. Psalms 34:8 and John 3:16

Beat with a mixer on high speed until stiff peaks are formed. Explain that the color white represents the purity in God's eyes of those whose sins have been cleansed by Jesus. Isaiah 1:18 and John 3:1-3

Fold in the broken nuts. Drop by teaspoons onto a wax paper covered cookie sheet. Explain that each mound represents the rocky tomb where Jesus' body was laid. Matthew 27: 57-60

Put the cookie sheet into the oven, close the door and turn off the heat. Tape the oven door to seal it shut. Explain that Jesus' body was sealed into the dark, cold tomb. Matthew 27: 65-66

GO TO BED! Explain that they may feel sad to leave the cookies in the oven overnight. Jesus' followers were in despair when the tomb was sealed. John 16: 20 & 22

On Easter morning, open the oven and give everyone a cookie. Notice that cracked surface and take a bite. The cookies are hollow! On the first Easter, Jesus' followers were amazed to find the tomb open and empty. Matthew 28: 1-9

DRUG PREVENTION MEETING – APRIL 18TH @ TPC CHURCH

- Did you know that parents that ensure their child remains drug free through the age of 18 are 90% successful in seeing their children lead a drug free life?
- The average age a child starts smoking tobacco is 12 years old.
- The average age a child starts drinking alcohol is 13 years old.
- The average age a child starts smoking marijuana is 14 years old.

There will be a meeting at TPC on April 18th regarding drug prevention, recognition and parental involvement. Special Agent Bill Etter, Demand Reduction Coordinator for the Drug Enforcement Administration, Portland District Office will be speaking with both parents and youth on the dangers of drugs and how family intervention can help every parent in helping their children live a drug free and successful life.

Parents will meet at 5:30 pm while the youth are eating. Then the Youth Group will join S/A Etter and their parents.

Call Debby Owen at (503) 692-6920 for more information.

Door Security Reminder

If you are the last person leaving the church after worship, a committee meeting, or fellowship event, please remember to check all the doors to the church as you leave the building. A simple tug on each door handle will ensure that the door has actually latched shut. Thank you.

Dave Leland
Building & Grounds Elder

The prayers and sympathy of the congregation are with Glenn Carlson and his family at the death of his wife, Madelyn. Madelyn passed away on March 18th.

Please also remember in prayer: Leo Chang (Pat DeVore's son-in-law), Virginia Clow (Cathy Chase's Mother), Elizabeth Shafer, Irvin Kessler (Connie Myers father), Olive Growney (Jaci Smith's Aunt), Nellie Chase (Harry Chase's mother), Bill Dorman (brother of Dorothy Butts), the members of our PNC, those who lead and serve our nation, communities and congregations.

CROP WALK sponsored by Church World Services is Palm Sunday, April 4

Crop Walks have raised funds for hunger and disaster relief in the U.S. and around the world for more than three decades. You are encouraged to join the TPC team, which will include this year's communicant class or give a donation. Registration begins at 1:00 pm at the Koinonia Center on the campus of PSU.

I WISH.....I WISH.....I WISH.....

Get out your hammers, paintbrushes, rakes and lots of elbow grease. Mark your calendar for April 24th. That is when the TPC team will try to make some special wishes come true. We could be asked to help refurbish some needy home in the Washington County area in the Rebuilding Together program. The project could be helping with clean up of a home landscape. Any and all able bodies are welcome to help with this project. Please sign up on sheet provided in the narthex. Any questions call Barbara Harriman, 503-649-9439 or Mike Shiffer, 503-692-3405.

Sign up in the Narthex for brunch on Palm Sunday, April 4th.

Texas Cake From the Kitchen of Gwen Hale

Mix in bowl: 2 c. sugar                      2 eggs
                   2 c. flour                                ½ tsp. salt
                   ½ c. sour cream                            tsp. baking soda

Mix in pan and bring to boil:
                   4 T. cocoa                                    1 c. water
                   2 sticks margarine

Add boiled mixture to the first six ingredients and blend. Pour into a greased 15x 10x 1 pan (batter will be thin). Bake 20 minutes at 350°

Icing

Mix in bowl:     1 box powdered sugar
                          1 c. chopped nuts (optional)
                          1 tsp vanilla

Mix in pan and bring to boil:
                   6 T. milk                                      4 T. cocoa
                   1 stick margarine

Add to mix in bowl and beat well. Frost while cake is still warm.

Congratulations to Casey Sparks!

Casey placed second out of 2,200 applicants in the national JFK Profiles in Courage essay contest. His essay, “. . . the evil we deplore,” was inspired by a line from the invocation given by the Dean of the Washington National Cathedral at the September 14, 2001, service for the National Day of Prayer and Remembrance.

Also, congratulation to Herb & Nancy Zachow, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on March 27th.

TPC Announcements

PASTOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Your Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) has been hard at work reading and evaluating more than 100 Personal Information Forms (PIF's) from prospective pastors. These PIF's are like resumes but are prepared in a uniform manner to ensure vital information is included on a consistent basis.

In addition to the standard information generally found on resumes (work history, education, references), a PIF contains written statements relating to areas from Theological Issues to comments on the characteristics of the "ideal" church to fit the candidate's interests, style and temperament. Each member of your PNC carefully compares statements to our congregation's definition of TPC as is found in our church mission study and reflected in our Church Information Form (CIF).

Having evaluated all the PIF's that have been submitted, your PNC has identified the top 20-30 matches. We are now having conversations with references listed by these candidates and will be narrowing the list to a manageable number for telephone interviews. At the same time, we are requesting sample sermon tapes from our top candidates so we can listen to their preaching styles.

The next steps of the process will include personal interviews and, later, attending worship services that are led by top candidates. This process may be lengthy, but it's also quite inspiring to read pastors' statements, to talk to their references and to hear their sermons. We all feel fortunate to become acquainted with so many wonderful people, who have been called to ministry.

With careful and prayerful consideration over the coming months, we expect to call a permanent pastor who will shepherd TPC for many years to come.

Greg Imus

What will our new pastor look like?

When you imagine our new pastor, whom do you see? Older? Younger? Male? Female? With kids? A single person? According to Christian Century, most churches seeking a new pastor want a married man with a family who will "help out" in the congregation – even today! Our Pastor Nominating Committee was warned early on that those churches who end up making poor choices for their new pastor do so by sticking to outdated, preconceived ideas about the "type" of person best for their congregations. Leaders across many dominations also "tend to be exasperated" at search committees who say they want a pastor to "grow the church", but really only want someone to come in and learn the "ways of the old school" and carry them on.

The average seminary graduate in the last several years is in his or her 40s. In one major denomination (United Methodist), one-third of pastors are single (never married or divorced) and half of seminarians are female. A typical recent graduate of the Presbyterian seminary in San Francisco is now an Associate Pastor at First Presbyterian in Portland. She is a woman in her late 40s, married to a local attorney, who went to seminary a few years ago with her 8-year-old daughter in tow. Her "experience" includes graduating from college in the 70s, raising a family and spending her adult life as an active lay leader in a Presbyterian church.

Good pastors are available in all colors, all ages and in either sex. They have life experiences, which have broadened their worldview and deepened their understanding of people. They adeptly plan for family time and for personal space, sharing the belief with their congregations that personal growth and study makes them better at what they do. Following Jesus' example of calling us each by name, your PNC is searching for the person or persons who by God's grace will be the pastor meant for TPC.
