

Jaci Smith passed away very unexpectedly on Sunday, April 5. Her memorial service was on Saturday, April 11. Below is a poem Carolyn Locke wrote and read at Jaci's memorial.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JACI SMITH

Jaci was indeed a gift of God
a caring friend so dear
We're still in shock from her sudden death
So, in pain, we gather here.

Jaci would not have chosen this time to go
She had lots of living to do
With quilts to make, students to teach
And a grandchild coming too.

But we know all life is in God's hands
He gives and takes away.
So He must have decided it was her time
At church on last Sunday.

This room was filled with joyful noise
Of Palm Sunday celebration
The news of her death was beyond belief
For our TPC congregation.

Let us thank God for the gift of her life
And for her family
The pleasure of being a friend of hers
Means so very much to me.

Roger and Jaci—what a fine couple--
Were married in '68
Clearly their marriage was one made in heaven
Though they had met just on a blind date.

Over time they were blessed with daughters
Melissa and Catherine, oh boy!
These talented children grew up fast
And filled their lives with joy.

The Smith home, though not so very large,
Always had room for more
When Girl Scouts or Whitman students came 'round
'Twas the place for fun galore.

Now Jaci was not much into camping
Though she gave Family Camp a try
They survived the week in a huge RV
Complete with vacuum cleaner—oh my!

Roger and Jaci found Marriage Encounter and believed in the power of love
The example of their relationship
Reflected faith in God above.

The Smith family proudly expanded
With Melissa's marriage to Brett
And remember Catherine & Robert's wedding
In the river getting wet?!

Becoming grandparents in recent years
Brought a new level of fun
Keeping up with little Gayle and Ella Kept Jaci on the run. (and she absolutely loved it!)

As a Christian Jaci acted on her faith
Following Christ's own call
She approached life with a helping hand
Eager to care for all.

Jaci, with a warm and radiant smile
Mixed with energy, intelligence, and cheer,
Served as a leader: deacon, elder,
And presbytery volunteer.

She believed in early literacy
And taught those for whom life was rough
Of course VBS, Sunday School, and church plays--
She tackled all sorts of stuff.

Organizing piles of Smith family photos
Gave Jaci lots of pleasure
And now for countless years to come
Those albums her family will treasure.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Jaci was famous for her peanut brittle
And chocolate in any form.
But you could always count on her
To bring lemon bars, still warm.

Sewing was another of Jaci's gifts
Her creativity could inspire
Also she and Roger raised voices in song
For many years in our choir.

She was a daughter, a mother, a loving wife
And everyone's special friend
She made a difference in all our lives
Right to the very end.

Some day we'll move on from this world
To where Jaci is patiently waiting
So let's look forward to that time
Of some grand celebrating!

Created by Carolyn Locke with appreciation of Jaci's life Thanks be to God! April 11, 2009

April 15, 2009
Dear Congregation,
What a traumatic week it has been with the sudden death of our beloved Jaci Smith.

I know we will surround Roger and his family with love and support in the coming days and month.

I would also encourage us as the body of Christ to comfort and support our pastor and his family, who so beautifully and lovingly comforted us during this difficult time.

It's easy to forget that our spiritual leader can also run on empty, and we need to come alongside and let him lean on us.

I am speaking from experience. Yours in Christ,
your deacon from Parish #9,

Edda Brown

Julie Van Buren

"Young Frankenstein" is her favorite movie. Pasta is her favorite food. She just finished reading Marley and Me. Meet Julie Van Buren.

Julie was born in The Dalles, Oregon, but moved to Portland when she was 2 years old. She graduated from Grant High School and attended First Presbyterian Church downtown. Her parents, Warren and Joyce Aney, currently members of Southminster Presbyterian and active in the Presbytery of the Cascades, are longtime friends of TPC's own Dee Johnson.

Julie is a devoted mother to Christina and Robert.
Christina is a graduate of Willamette University and lives in the Portland area. Robert is in the process of moving from Houston to Boston to attend Harvard to earn a Master's Degree in education.

Julie has a career in Human Resources for Safeway
Corp. as well as working in the men's department at Macy's in Washington Square. She likes to read in her spare time, enjoys traveling and is looking forward to taking a trip to the east coast with her son, Robert, later this year.

Singing in the choir and serving as a deacon are active roles for Julie at TPC. Thanks, Julie, for your service to TPC.

Treasures are great through year #8!

"Treasures", our outreach program serving local developmentally disabled adults, is still going strong after 8 years. In April 2001 nineteen TPC volunteers welcomed our first 6 Treasures. Now our regular attendance is more than 20 Treasures.

Having more volunteers would allow us to give Treasures more individual attention. If you ever want or need an inspirational and uplifting experience, come and join us on the third Tuesday of each month. Thanks to all of you who have helped make this a quality program over the years. You are the best!

With appreciation,
Carolyn Locke

Treasures are fine starting year #9!

TPC COOKBOOK

The TPC Cookbook Project is a very important mission for TPC. All profits from the sale of these cookbooks will be placed in our Helping Hands Fund. This fund is a discretionary fund overseen by the deacons but distributed by our pastor in a confidential manner to those in our congregation who need emergency assistance for housing, food, transportation and/or medical treatment. Please support the cookbook project by donating your favorite recipes to be included in the book, as well as any historical information about your recipes. Information is available each week in the bulletin, each month in the Spirit and on the Tower in the Narthex. June 1st is the deadline for turning in your recipes. Thank you for extending your "Helping Hand" in this important way.

TUALATIN SCHOOL HOUSE PANTRY

The food pantry continues to feed many local families. All kinds of food are appreciated.

WHAT IS PER CAPITA? For 2009, it is $22.55 per member.

Tualatin Presbyterian Church is a member congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and, as such, has a relationship with every other church in the denomination, as well as with the governing bodies: Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly.

Per capita has been compared to a utility bill. Just as we pay for heat, light, water and telephone in order to remain connected and benefit from the services provided, we pay per capita so that the Presbyterian system can function on behalf of all of us.

Tualatin Presbyterian Church must pay a 2009 per capita fee of $22.55 for each member, an expense that is not included in the annual budget. Each member is asked to pay his/her own per capita fee. Reminder: This is an individual fee, not a family fee. Please make your check payable to TPC, write per capita on the comment line and drop it in the offering plate or take it to the office. Thank you.
