Do you like to get together with others to make music? This is a new opportunity for people of the Tualatin Presbyterian Church, You need only a desire and love for music, You do not need to be accomplished or even a good singer-- you need only to want to sing, The choir will focus on the experience of singing with others and being a catalyst for richer and better singing within the congregation in worship.

[Please note: we need to know when the best time is for you to get together. Please indicate your preference. Choir will meet on one evening of the week to be announced in September.]
